

SUCCESSFUL CONCERT AT THE CIVIC CENTRE

Irish music sensation Michael English descended on Whitchurch Civic Centre on Wednesday 22nd April 2015; Michael and his five piece Irish band performed to a two hundred strong crowd during the Shropshire leg of their UK tour.

Cllr Tony Neville (pictured with his wife Pat Neville) was instrumental in securing the venue as one of only very few concerts across England this summer. Tony enthused “The last time Michael performed in Whitchurch was twenty years ago and he was very impressed with the newly refurbished Civic Centre – they nearly drove past because they simply didn’t recognise the place!” Fans travelled into Whitchurch from as far as Abergavenny in South Wales.

Town Centre Manager Zoë Dean said “I was so pleased that the Civic Centre was selected to host such a prestigious Irish artist; Michael is a very talented performer and he made sure everyone enjoyed the show. We have received lots of fantastic feedback already from those who attended the concert and a number of people telephoned the next day to book tickets for the follow on event.” The next Irish show will feature Dominic Kirwan and Mary Duff and will take place at the Civic Centre on Saturday 27th June 2015; tickets will be priced at £22.00.
